LUTHERAN HERITAGE FOUNDATION

BACK TO SOUTH SUDAN! Pre-Trip Update from Pastor Bolte

The Lutheran Heritage Foundation (LHF) was instrumental in starting the Evangelical Lutheran Church in South Sudan. What began with a handful of Luther's Small Catechisms has now led to a rapidly growing Church body in South Sudan, Sudan, and multiple refugee camps in various countries. The LHF translates, publishes, distributes and introduces books that are Bible-based, Christ-centered and Reformation-driven. In more than 80 countries and 100 languages, thousands of people have come to faith in Christ because they've been able to read books like The Good News About Jesus or Luther's Small Catechism in their own languages. LHF has published the catechism in more than 90 languages with dozens more requested. In the past decade, LHF has published and distributed over 1,000 titles and 3 million Lutheran books to pastors, seminary students, missionaries and churches - all at no cost to them. The LHF is a worthwhile, conservative Lutheran cause that is making disciples!

*Thank you for your ongoing support and encouragement!
It is greatly appreciated.*
