"Nothing in all the world even comes close to the importance of gathering each week in the presence of the risen Christ to receive His gifts and respond in prayer and praise. The Word made flesh is present to teach us through His Word. The Word made flesh is present to feed us with His body and blood. This is where God, Who is everywhere, is present for us to bring forgiveness, life and salvation directly to us."

The Blessings of Weekly Communion, Kenneth W. Wieting, p.21

Whoever believes and holds to Christ's Word, heaven stands open to him, hell is shut, the devil is imprisoned, sins are forgiven, and he is a child of eternal life. That is what this book teaches you -- the Holy Scripture -- and no other book on earth.

Martin Luther (WA 48:155)

Have you seen the...

...50th Anniversary Mission and Ministry Map?

It's hanging out in the entryway of the Family Life Center for a few weeks. Stop by and take a look at it! One side shows where you all have come from to make Trinity your church home. You are encouraged to drop a pin to show where you hailed as home before coming TO Trinity! The other side shows the worldwide impact reach FROM Trinity and the missions you support with your faithful gifts and offerings. The map will move to the sanctuary narthex next. A special thank you to Sandi Simon for putting this together for us to celebrate 50 years of mission and ministry to and from Trinity's campus!

Mission Moment

Who, in your life, needs God's marvelous light?

How can you declare your joy in Jesus to them this week?

When will you tell someone that Jesus, God Himself, came to set us free?!

holy COMMUNION

"We all come together, as children of the same family, to the table of our common, Heavenly Father. As great as the distinction between communicants in civic life may be, in the Holy Supper all distinctions evaporate. We are all the same, in that we each eat the same earthly and heavenly bread and drink the same earthly and heavenly drink. In this Meal, the subject and his king, the slave and his master, the beggar and the rich, the child and the old man, the wife and the husband, the simple and the learned, truly all communicants stand as the same poor sinners and beggars, hungry and thirsty for grace. Although one may appear in a rough apron while another in velvet and satin, adorned with gold and pearls, when they depart, all take with them that for which they hunger and thirst: Christ's blood and righteousness as their beauty and glorious dress. No one receives a better food or better drink than the other. All receive the same Jesus, and with Him, the same righteousness."

Treasury Of Daily Prayer, holy Thursday, quote from C.F.W. Walther

Prayer of the Week

Lord Jesus Christ, we thank you for revealing yourself to us as the One, True, and Only God, who has come into the world to do the work of salvation for us and for all people. Give us faith to know and to believe in You, deepen our conviction of the truths that You teach us in Your Holy Word. We thank You for the men and women throughout history who have boldly defended the truth and faithfully confessed the faith. Help us in our lifetime to stand firm, and to boldly defend the truth and faithfully confess the faith. Amen!
